

MICHELLE TAYLOR WATSON

Michelle Taylor Watson has been married for 33 years to F Michael Watson. She has 3 adult children and 3 amazing Grandchildren. She is currently employed at Morton Community Bank as a Business Operations Specialist. She also serves as the First Lady of Love and Kindness Ministries where her husband Pastors. Her theatre credits at Peoria Players Theatre are as follows: Deena in Dreamgirls, Ruth in Raisin in the Sun, an urchin in Little Shop of Horrors, Shug Avery in The Color Purple, Church Singer in Memphis, Peoria Players Holiday Specials, and A Tribute to Tony Bennett. She also volunteers every 2nd Saturday of a production. She believes what she can bring to the table is more diversity. We have so many people of ALL COLORS who are talented in theatre right here in this area. Find ways to draw them to the world of theatre and participate in theatre! To be able to portray a character that is different from who you are and bring it to life is mesmerizing. The awe of a character -- one who can make you laugh and cry in the same breath! She LOVE the arts, the craft of theatre and that it is diverse and inclusive.
