

PEGGY HUPP

Peggy has been involved with Peoria theatre for the past 55 years as a performer, choreographer and director. She has been on the Corn Stock Board of Directors, the Executive Board of Directors for the Illinois Theater Association and Community Children's Theatre. Peggy has directed and choreographed several shows at Peoria Players from 2010 to 2024. She also directed at Corn Stock Theatre and several shows with Community Children's Theatre. She ran the theater department at Richwoods High School for 12 years and currently running the drama program at Peoria Notre Dame High School.

Peggy is now retired from Humana Insurance company where she worked as a customer service representative for 21 years but also assisted with starting programs, working with teams across the country improving company policy and received many awards for her work with the company.

Through the years as a director, Peggy worked with stage crew and cast communicating her vision, solving technical problems with sound and lighting experts, and worked with costumers, props, set builders, and securing sponsors to offset show expenses. Peggy has many years of experience and would be an asset to the Peoria Players Board of Directors.
